Chapter 1 by Story Wars

I, Marie-Ann Smith, have created a robot, yes, a robot! Made of dead flesh and everything! I know that's probably not the best first impression but, I am an inventor, so ergo, I invent things. I have created the first robot-human hybrid! People say I will do great things, I thought, "Maybe they're just attempting to be nice," and, "They're lying!" But I truly am doing great things! The robot, of course can't be called robot! And, it is of girl gender, so I have decided on Jordan. Jordan, will be the demo of my amazing works.

One week later

No one who I had shown Jordan to had not been easily impressed, they all said things like, "Sell it to me, little child!" Uuuugh! My last resort is my one and only friend, Maxi Doro. I knocked on her door and waited. After 5 minutes, Maxi opened the door with curlers in her hair and was wearing a face mask, "Hey, I thought you were out of town today." "No, I wanted to surprise you with something, close your eyes, and I'll lead you to where it is." I smiled as she closed her eyes. I grabbed her hand, and raced home as fast as I could. "Whoa! How fast are you going? 100 miles per hour?" She screamed behind me. "We're here, but keep your eyes closed." I walked over to Jordan. "Are you ready, okay, now!" Maxi opened her eyes and ran over to Jordan. "OMG, it's amazing! What is it?" "It's a real..."
